

Please take this home with you. On your next visit, we will play this game in the office to better measure your child's vision. Practice matching the following letters with your child at home. You can cut out the letters near the bottom and show them to your child as single cards they must match.

